

Module 5: Optional Resources

RELEVANT WEBSITES

- UNESCO ElectoralCheck: www.Electoralcheck.org
- Privacy International: <https://www.privacyinternational.org/>
- Facebook Oversight Board: <https://oversightboard.com/>
- Oxford Internet Institute of the University of Oxford, Programme On Democracy & Technology: <https://demtech.oii.ox.ac.uk/>
- ARTICLE 19 (Mexico): <https://www.article19.org/>

READINGS

- Democracy Reporting international (2019) - Experiences of Social Media Monitoring During Elections: Cases and Best Practice to Inform Electoral Observation Missions. Available at: <https://digitalmonitor.democracy-reporting.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/social-media-monitoring-during-elections-20190614.pdf>
- Section: Guidelines for Electoral Observation Missions | Pages 27 to 31 - UNESCO (2021): Letting the sun shine in: transparency and accountability in the digital age. Available at: <https://unesdoc.unesco.org/ark:/48223/pf0000377231>
- IFES (2019), Disinformation Campaigns and Hate Speech: Exploring the Relationship and Programming Interventions, International Foundation for Electoral Systems. Available at: https://www.ifes.org/sites/default/files/2019_ifes_disinformation_campaigns_and_hate_speech_briefing_paper.pdf

VIDEOS

- UNESCO: Gabriela Ramos on how to build the rule of law in the digital world: